Acknowledgement of Risk

It is neither desirable nor feasible to remove all risk from activities. This risk is an essential part of adventure and provides the challenge to outdoor activities. For each person the challenge will differ and can be physical, psychological or emotional. Risk can be managed to acceptable levels. People will not be exposed to a level of risk higher than that found in every day life.

Risk Acknowledgement.

1. I understand that there are risks associated with entering this race. I am aware that Vertigo Bikes and volunteers will take all reasonable and practical steps to manage these risks to an acceptable level.
2. At any time during the race I understand I am free to ask for information and make my own decision on the level of involvement suitable for me alone.
3. Vertigo Bikes employees will take all reasonable safety precautions, provide clear instructions on hazards, procedures and activities, and should I choose to act outside this advice, then I accept I do so at my own risk and am personally responsible for any consequences. I am responsible to ensure that my actions do not jeopardize the safety of others.
4. I am fit and able both physically and mentally and consider I have the ability to participate in this event.
5. I will wear a NZ safety approved helmet at all times during the event.
6. I will be riding a mountain bike in a condition fit and safe for this race.
7. My race number will be secured to my bike in such a way that it will be clearly visible to the time keepers and course marshals at all times.
8. I accept that should I act in an unsportsmanlike way, or cheat while racing, I will be warned once and any further unsportsmanlike behavior or cheating, I accept I will be disqualified and banned from completing the race.
9. I accept the Race Director's decision is final and binding in any dispute.
10. Should the event be postponed, the race will be held on Sunday 20th January. I the race is cancelled I accept I will receive a refund of 80% of my entry fee.
11. I acknowledge that the organizers reserve the right to alter the advertised course, start or finish time, should it be required.
12. I acknowledge that, at some times, there may be chair lift stoppages that interfere with the race.
13. The entry in not valid unless signed by the participant.
